

WSLS Publications

Order Form

“Your Land and the Land Surveyor”: A classy, informational brochure that every surveying firm will want a supply of. You’re welcome to stamp your company name and address on the back panel. Ideal for distributing to local banks, realtors, law firms and your own clients. Include one along with your proposals and when invoicing.

Cost to members: 25 for $5 Cost to non-members: 25 for $10 $_____

Wisconsin Laws Relating to the Practice of Land Surveying, updated February, 2006. This is by far the most popular and well-used publication the Society has ever produced. Every practicing surveyor should have a copy of this manual within reach at all times.

Cost to members: $15 Cost to non-members: $25 $_____

Another must-have publication for anyone taking the Wisconsin Jurisdictional part of the surveyors exam: Harlan Onsrud’s A Manual for Resurvey of Public Land Survey Corners and Sectionalized Subdivision Boundaries Within the State of Wisconsin.

Cost to members: $20 Cost to non-members: $25 Cost to students: $16 $_____

“Hot off the press!”—a reprint of Tom Sprague’s: General Instructions and State Laws Governing the Original Government Survey of Wisconsin

Cost to members: $20 Cost to non-members: $30 $_____

New, from Patrick Lee, “Mosquitoes, Gnats & Prickly Pear Cactus”—

A compilation of the 21 installments of the Lewis and Clark expedition featured in Wisconsin Professional Surveyor. But it contains much more—at least one entry from each day of the 2-1/2 year expedition.

Cost to members: $20 Cost to non-members: $25 $_____

Total.....$_____

Make check made out to: Wisconsin Society of Land Surveyors and mail to
2128 Broken Hill Road
Waukesha, WI 53188

Your name: _____

Address: _____

August, 2007